

I am currently listed on Indiana's telephone privacy listing.
I am happy with the system currently in place and do not wish to see the law relaxed. I feel that I have a right to privacy in my home. If I wish to purchase goods or services, I can call, email, or shop in the store. I was receiving 3-4 phone calls each evening and I am strongly opposed to changing this law.